

Erin Hayes x Jacquemus Spring–Summer 2022

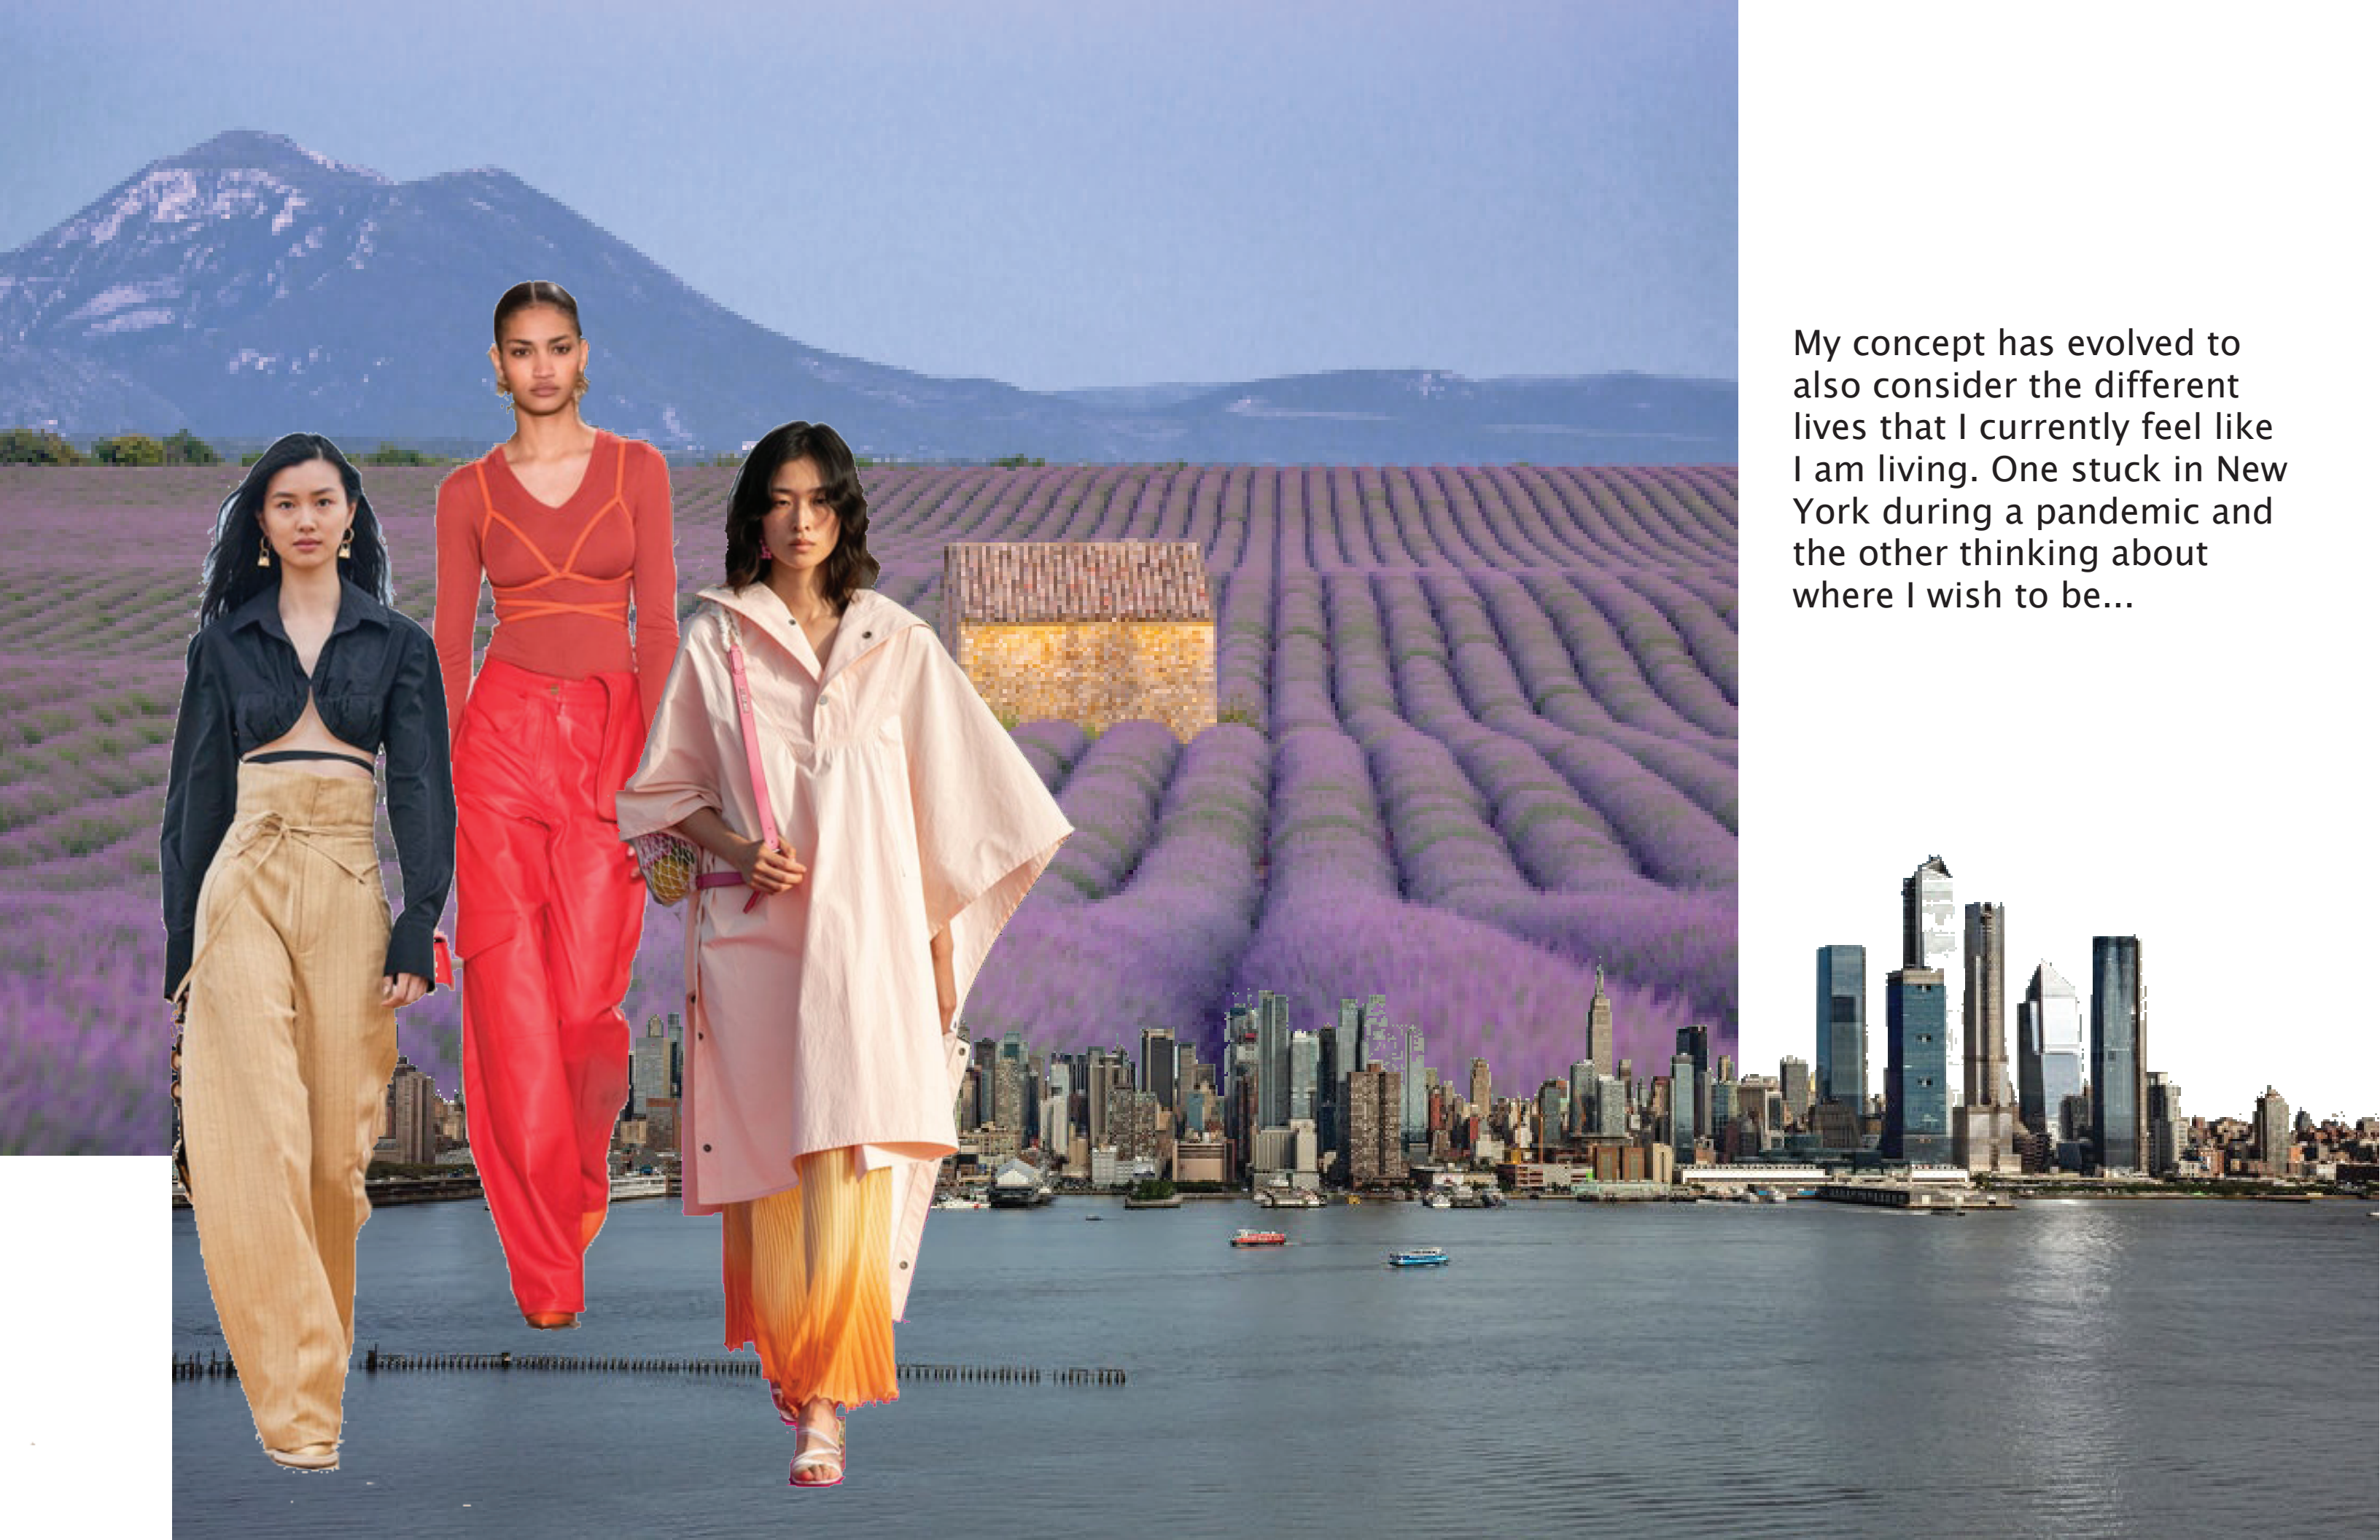

“For the 28-year-old fashion designer, the TGV is not just a rail line but a lifeline—one that connects his biological relatives, still ensconced in the village where he grew up, and the gang he refers to as his Paris family...”

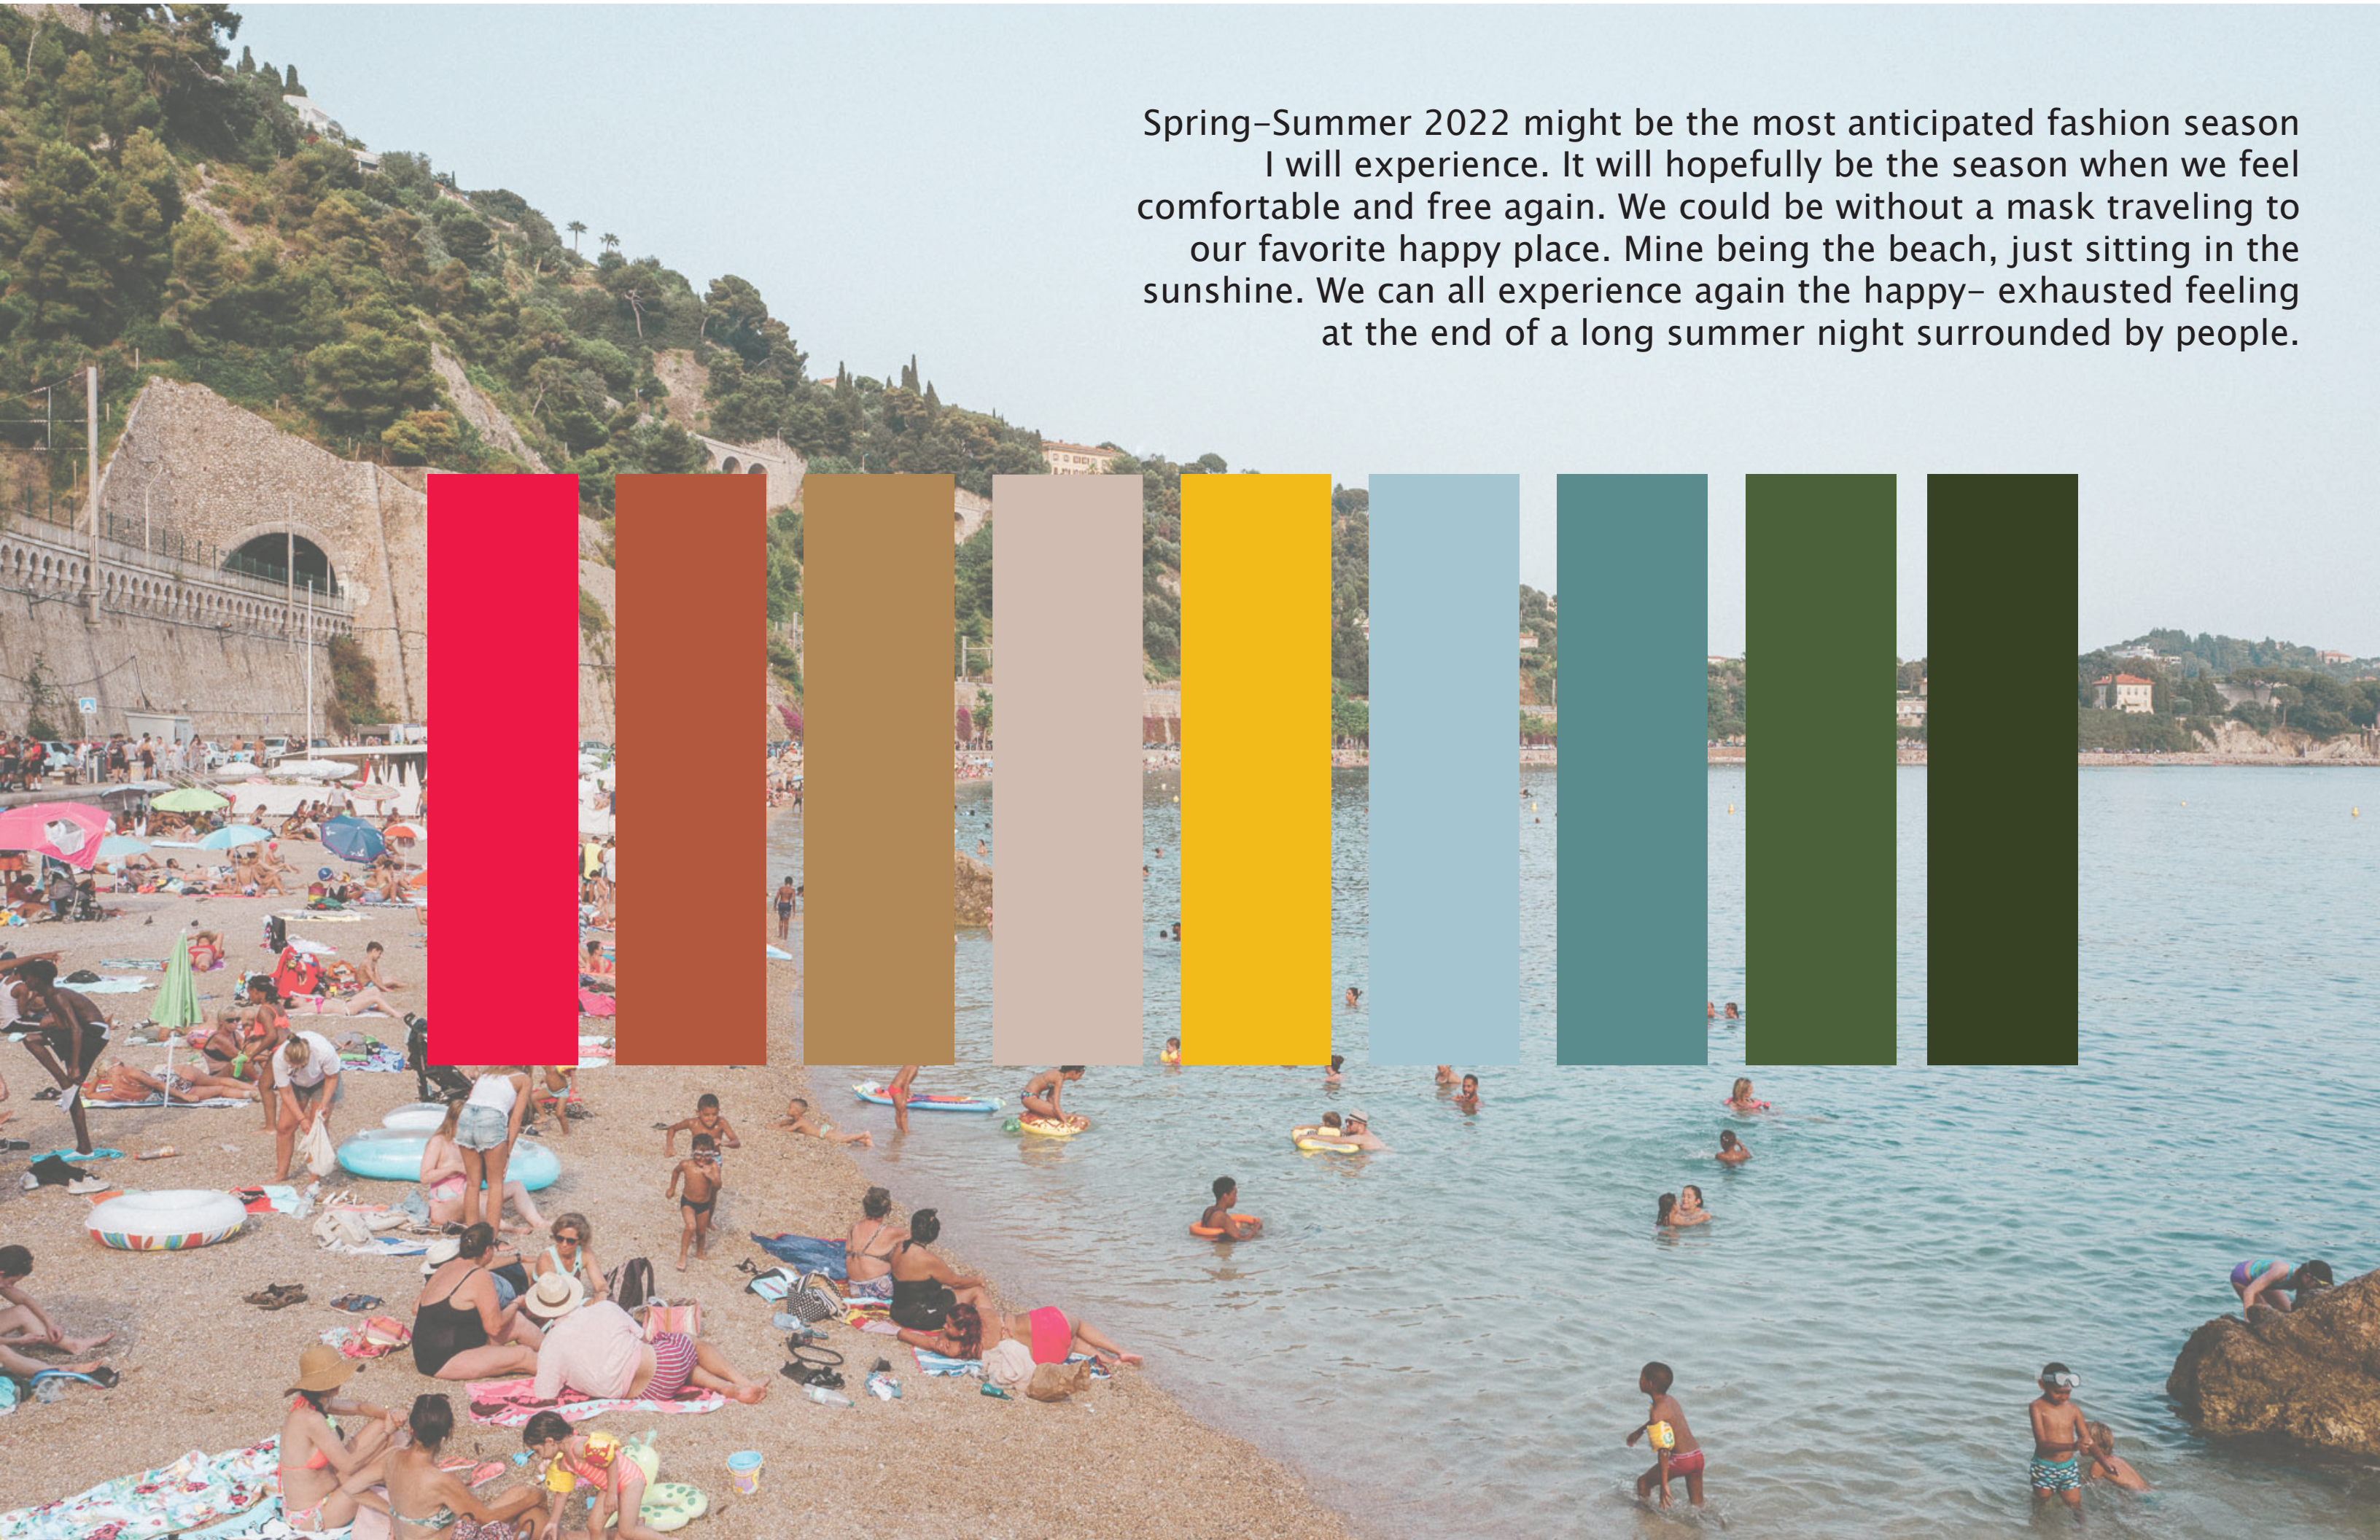

My concept has evolved to also consider the different lives that I currently feel like I am living. One stuck in New York during a pandemic and the other thinking about where I wish to be...

Spring–Summer 2022 might be the most anticipated fashion season I will experience. It will hopefully be the season when we feel comfortable and free again. We could be without a mask traveling to our favorite happy place. Mine being the beach, just sitting in the sunshine. We can all experience again the happy– exhausted feeling at the end of a long summer night surrounded by people.
