

RED BLUE YELLOW

Brooklyn Dwelling Renovation
Fall 2019 Design Studio

The project is designed to meet the needs of a multi-generation family, who are from local community and also from Northeast of China. People from Northeast of China have a tradition of taking a communal bath with friends and family. The bathroom is placed in the center of the dwelling and also works as a connection for the two floors. Families can easily access the bathroom from any space.

reading area